- Send money to people you know and trust with Zelle^{®4}
- Switch over your direct deposit to make getting started a breeze.

¹ PNC limits the number of transfers that may be made from a savings or money market account without incurring a fee. Please see your account agreement and fee schedule for more information.

² PNC Easy Lock is not a replacement for reporting your debit or credit card lost or stolen. If you believe your debit or credit card has been lost or stolen, please contact PNC immediately at 1-888-762-2265 and continue to monitor your account activity for unauthorized transactions.

³ PNC does not charge a fee for Mobile Banking, including PNC Alerts. However, third-party message and data rates may apply. Check with your wireless carrier for details.

⁴ Zelle[®] should only be used to send or receive money with people you know and trust. Before using Zelle[®] to send money, you should confirm the recipient's email address or U.S. mobile phone number. Neither PNC nor Zelle[®] offers purchase protection for payments made with Zelle[®] — for example, if you do not receive the item you paid for, or the item is not as described or as you expected. To send or receive money with Zelle[®], both parties must have an eligible checking or savings account at a participating financial institution in the U.S. Transactions typically occur in minutes between enrolled users. If the recipient has not enrolled, the payment will expire after 14 calendar days. See the PNC Zelle Terms of Use for additional terms and conditions. Use of Zelle[®] is subject to and conditional upon adherence to the terms and conditions of the PNC Zelle[®] Terms of Use.
